Sir:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of February 12, 1944, stating that you are negotiating with Mr. Pedro Formenthal in an effort to have him render his services to your baseball club.

Mr. Formenthal should apply for a visa at this office at which time the statements made in your letter will be given careful consideration. There is no record that he has ever applied for an immigration or a nonimmigrant visa at this office.

Very truly yours,
